

For Your Husband

Father, I come boldly before your throne of grace in the name of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, lifting up my husband.

Father, I confess your word that my husband is first of all, a man of God who is faithful into you, and then faithful unto his wife and his family.

I thank you that my husband is a man of God who loves you with all of his heart, soul, strength, and might. I confess that he is a man of God who seeks to know you more and draw near to you. I pray that you would keep his heart-to allow nothing to separate his love from you or his family.

I confess that my husband is a good provider for his family. I confess that he is a man of God who leads our family in wisdom, love and the fear of the Lord. I thank you that he is a man of God who seeks your face daily for divine directions, instructions, and guidance concerning his life and his family. I pray that as he seeks your face, that you would be a lamp unto his feet a light unto his path, and guide him as you order his footsteps for our lives.

I thank you that my husband is a man of God who studies to show himself approved unto you O God, and he knows how to rightfully divide and skillfully use the word of truth. I pray that as he studies your word, that you would give him revelation knowledge concerning your will so that he may teach and instruct his family in the word and the ways of the Lord.

Father, I thank you for assigning your ministering angels to be encamped around my husband continually to protect , watch over him, fight for him and keep my husband in all his ways-spiritually, emotionally, mentally, financially as well as physically.

Father, I thank you that my husband loves me, even as Jesus Christ loves the church and gave himself for the church. As my husband loves me, I thank you that I shall love him. As your love is renewed for us every morning, I pray that you would bless our love to be renewed for you each day. Bless our love, desire and passion to be also renewed and revived for one another every day. May the time I spend with him bring joy and excitement to my heart!

I pray that you would renew his strength in his coming in and his going out-at home, at work and about. And, by the stripes of Jesus Christ, I confess that he walks continually in good health all the days of his life. I confess your word that my husband if crucified with Christ; nevertheless, he lives; yet it is not him that lives, but Jesus Christ living in him. I choose to show my husband respect.

Father I pray that you would keep my husband from falling, and present him faultless with exceeding joy. May you keep him from falling for the strange woman, and the spirit of lust and seduction. I pray that you would lead him away from temptation, and deliver him from every trap of the adversary.

I thank you father that no weapon that is formed against my husband shall be able to prosper, and every tongue that shall rise up against him shall be exposed and ashamed. I thank you for rebuking the devourer from his life; and I pray that you would bless my husband with a double portion of your anointing and power, so that when the enemy comes against him one way, he shall be forced to flee from before him seven different ways.

I thank you father that my husband has favor with you and with man. As he goes upon his job, or his business may you bless him with your wisdom, favor, prosperity, and success. Bless him to prosper in everything he does.

Now father, I commit my husband to you; and I am confident, that according to your word, you are able to keep him, sustain him and direct him in all ways, as I have committed him unto you.

In the name of Jesus Christ, I pray, AMEN!
