

For Your Wife

Father, I come boldly before your throne of grace in the name of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, lifting up my wife.

You said in your word, "whoever finds a wife finds a good thing and obtains favor with you" I thank you Father that you have given me a good thing by blessing me with my wife; and I pray that we find favor with you, through first of all our love for you, and then our love for one another.

I thank you that my wife is a blessing to me in every way. I thank you that she is a virtuous woman, her price is far above rubies, and strength and honor are her clothing.

I thank you that she opens her mouth with wisdom, and in her tongue is the law of kindness. I confess that my wife looks well to (takes well care of) her husband, her children and her household.

Father, I pray that you would bless me to continually cherish and love my wife as Jesus Christ loves the church, and gave himself for the church. As I love my wife, I thank you that she also loves me. I pray that you would bless me to always be pleasant with my wife, and bless her to intimately satisfy me at all times, even to the point to where I am ravished with her love.

I thank you Father that my wife is clothed in beauty and charm; and my eyes are drawn only to her, and enticed only by her. I thank you that my heart safely trusts in her and I desire her. I pray that in my wife, are the desires of my heart and my eyes.

Help me to never look upon my wife in a negative way. But as I look upon my wife, may I only see my love for her, and the glory of the Lord upon her all the days our lives together.

As your love is renewed for us every morning, I pray that you would bless our love to be renewed for you each day. And, as our love is renewed for you, bless our love, desire and passion to be also renewed and revived for one another each and every day. May the time I spend with my wife bring joy and excitement to my heart.

As you renew the strength of the eagle, I pray that you would renew my wife's strength. Give her strength in her coming in and her going out-at home, and at work and about.

I thank you father that my wife seeks you and all of your righteousness first in her life; and I pray that you would keep her strong in the power of your might. And may you keep her strengthened, established and settled in you, your anointing, and your power. I thank you father that she is a woman of prayer, who prays effectually and fervently with prayer and supplications, and she studies your word to continually show herself approved unto you.

I thank you father that no weapon that is formed against my wife will be able to prosper, and every tongue that shall rise up against her shall be exposed and ashamed. I thank you for your promise to rebuke the devourer from her life; and I pray that you would bless my wife with a double portion of your anointing and power, so that when the enemy comes against her one way, he shall be forced to flee from before her seven different ways.

I thank you father that you have given your ministering angels a charge to be encamped around my wife (continually) to protect her, watch over her, fight for her, and keep her in all her ways.

I thank you that my wife has favor with you, I pray that you would bless her to prosper in everything she does. I pray that as she goes upon on her job, that she will allow the light of Jesus Christ to shine before the people around her, and glorify you, o God,

Now father, I commit my wife into your; and I am confident that according to your word you are able to keep her, sustain her protect her, and direct her in all her ways, as I have committed her unto you.

In the name of Jesus Christ I pray, AMEN!
